AMELIA has always felt like a happy life is just out of reach. Having moved every few years with her mom and sister, sheâ€™s always had a hard time making and keeping friends; thereâ€™s never enough time, and never enough money to stay in one place. And now, in her senior year, right before tennis season, Mom wants to move again.

SOPHIE has a perfectly curated, Instagram-ready life, from her first singles wins to her cute, long-term boyfriend to the beautiful, landscaped home where she lives with her parents. Though theyâ€™re tennis teammates, the two girls almost never speak.

But then one night changes everything. When Ameliaâ€™s car breaks down on the side of the road in a rainstorm, a man she thinks is a Good Samaritan pulls over to help her. When he tries to abduct her instead, she escapes into oncoming traffic.

In one inexplicable moment, Amelia and Sophie switch bodies. Amelia wakes up in Sophieâ€™s body. Ameliaâ€™s body is in a coma. Now Amelia needs to find a way to switch back into her own lifeâ€”but before that, she must retrace her steps to unravel the mystery of the accident, her attempted abduction, and how itâ€™s all tied to her motherâ€™s secret past.
